Both of these constitutional amendments proceed upon the idea that no evidence of crime, whether it be written or oral, shall be allowed to be introduced when force or violence is used to procure it. That is to say, you cannot compel a man to surrender his private papers, nor can you compel him to testify orally against himself, but you may use his private papers in evidence against him if gained possession of otherwise than in the manner prohibited by the Constitution, and so you may use his oral statement if obtained from him in a manner not prohibited by law.

A Car Crashes Into a Buggy.

What might have been a more serious accident happened to Mr. Fritz Sitterding and Mr. B. M. Quarles on Fourteenth street at the Richmond and Danville railroad yesterday morning. They were in a buggy on their way to Manchester, and when they reached the railroad track a train of cars happened to be passing on the Danville track another train on the Chestpeake and Ohio track, and drays and wagons were blockaded. The buggy was in the mists of the other vehicles standing still. A street-car came by and streck the buggy, upsetting it and throwing the occupants out. Neither was badly hurt.

Another Operation on Uncle Larry.

For the third time within four years, says this week's Christian Advocate, the knife of the surgeon has cut deep and wide into the wasted and weak body of the Rev. J. B. Laurens, known in Southern Methodism and in the regions beyond as "Uncle Larry." Last week calcul were removed through the incision. He bore the steel blade severing the flesh well and retains his nerve and spirits in a surprising manner. Thousands will invoke the aid of the good Physician in bringing our brother out of the hospital. This was the last operation by Dr. McGuire before he leaves for Europe.

A Southern United States History.

The Rev. R. R. Howison, of Fredericksburg, appreciating the keen desire which has been manifested through the South for a history of the United States prepared by a southern suthor, has been engaged for several years past in the preparation of such a book. The Everet Waddev Company, of this city, have undertaken its publication. The book will be issued in larve 12mo. shape and will make about 750 pages, and will be out about September 15th.

Chamber of Commerce Building.

The Building Committee of the Chamber of Commerce have instructed Captain M. J. Dimmock, the architect, to go ahead with his working drawings. About the only question now to be decided by the committee is what materials will be used in the structure—whether Virginia blue granite and gray brick or Virginia brownstone and buff brick. The latter would probably be the warmest, but either would make a beautiful and imposing building.

thunder, hail, and rain passed over a large part of Germany last night, causing immense damage to property and loss of life in the villages of Suchtellon, near Dusseldorf, and Sttard, in the Crefeld district, also near Dusseldorf. Many houses were completely weeked and the immaiss buried in the rains. Thirteen bodies have already been recovered. Army ploneers have been sent to aid in the work of rescue. It is yet too soon to form any estimate of the total number of lives lost.
At Brunswick the storm assumed the proportions of a cyclone, and the inhabitants report last night as being one of the most terrible in their experience.
